FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

WEDNESDAY, March 21-6 P. M The stock market has been alternately strong and unsettled to-day, but it closed steady. The "short" interest is so large that the bears have been heavy losers present rise set in, and some of their number are now endeavoring to depress the general railway list by an attack upon Erie; but the result can hardly be successful, in view of the reat abundance and cheap-ness of money and the other causes influencing operations on the Stock Exchange just now. The "bulls" have regained control of the market, and having the ability to retain it they are not likely to relax their hold until considerably higher prices have been touched. Michigan Southern was the strongest of the railway shares and Erie the weakest.

At the early session of the open board New York Central (sales 2,200 shares) sold at 93½, Eric 81½ a 80½, Hudson River 108, Reading (sales 3,000 shares) 102½, Michigan Southern (sales 2,100 shares) 80%, Cieveland and Pittsburg (sales 7,400 shares) 80% a 81%, Rock Island 113, Northwestern preferred 55%, Fort Wayne 9 a 91%, Schuylkill Coal 15% a 14. At the first regular board the market was very active and on the whose firm, although prices showed a decline from those current at yesterday's half-past two board, with the exceptions of New York Central, which was % higher, Northwestern preferred %, Canton %, Ohio and Mississippi certificates %, Canton %, Missour State sixes 1%. Eric was 1% lower, Hudson River %, Reading 1 %, Michigan Southern %, Cleveland and Pitts burg %, Northwestern %, Rock Island %, Fort Wayne %, Western Union Telegraph %. Government securities were inactive. Coupon ten-forties declined 1/2. Seven thirty notes were steady.

At the one o'clock session the market was firmer and the volume of business large. Michigan Southern rose to 81\(\frac{\pi}{2}\) and Cleveland and Pittsburg to 81\(\frac{\pi}{2}\). The transactions at the open beard were as usual far in excess of those at the regular board. At the half-past two session the market was strong and prices advanced, Michigan Southern being par-ticularly active and buoyant under an investment as well as a speculative demand, in view of the resumption of dividends and the promising condition and prospects of the road, its current earnings being considerably on the increase. The stock closed at $2%, or 1 per cent higher than at the first regular board; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, Reading %, Hudson River 14, Northwest rn preferred 14, Cleveland and Toledo 14, Rock Island 1, Western Union Telegraph 14. Ohio and Mississippi certificates were unusually active and advanced % further in consequence of the recent decision of the Supreme Court in favor of the company, and the expectation that at the annual meeting shortly to be held the trustees will propose selling the road to liquidate their trust, and thus it directly under the control and in the pessession of the company, in which event the certificates will be at he same time converted into stock. Government securitles were neglected. At the half-past three open board there was reaction experienced, owing to a report that c Committee of Ways and Means had the Loan oill under consideration, as also to a vigorous of the leading stocks. New York Central sold at 9314. Erie 80%, Northwestern 27%, preferred 55%, R ading 101%, Michigan Southern 81%, Cleveland and Pittsburg 80%, Cle cland and Toledo 110%, Rock Island 112%, Canton 47%. Afterwards the market was steady, and at half-past five the following quotations were current;-New York Central 93 a 14. Erie 80, Reading 10134 a 34. Michigan Southern 81% a 14, Cleveland and Pitts! 80% a %, Northwestern 27% a %, preferred 55% a %, Fort Wayne 91%. The House of Representatives to-day passed a bill giving existing railroad companies power to carry freight and passengers from one State to another, and also to connect continuous lines, with the provise that land roads shall not be released from their existing connect continuous lines, with the provise that land grant railroads shall not be released from their existing obligations.

The conservative policy of Congress with regard to the finances is illustrated by Mr. Hooper's financial bill, which imposes certain limitations upon and clearly defines the future action of the Secretary of the Treasury. The bill extends the act of March 3, 1805, and empowers the Secretary to seil any description of bonds authorized by that set, but at a price not below par, and to receive in payment therefor any existing notes, bonds or certificate, the bill specifically requiring the withdrawal of an amount of the old bonds or notes equal to that of the new bonds issued, thus specially providing against any increase of the public debt. In order to avail himself of this authority we need hardly say that great and prices; a growing disposition on all sides to allow the Secretary of the Treasury no discretionary power with regard to the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for and facilitate the currency, but simply to provide for the veck ending March 20 and since the beginning of the yet, are subjoined:
